

We hope the law does not change. We have had much more quality time we sand much less annoyances since the privacy law took affect. It's crazy when you can't have peace and quiet even in your own home, with your own family. Please don't let it change!!!